

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO folks!

"The sun has got its hat on, hip, hip, hip, hooray, the sun has got its hat on and is coming out to play."

And about time too, don't you think?!

This wet weather has been playing havoc with Meg and my nuts and bolts. We keep rusting up and as for the windscreen, well we are forever steaming up with all that wind and rain.

I don't know, the summer has been a bit of a wash out so far, but we think if we keep on singing the same song, the sun won't have any choice but to keep on coming out!

And that got us thinking about our favourite songs connected to summer. We had great fun singing them to each other and we hope you will get into the spirit and join in the competition below, but remember it is just for fun!

Don't forget to keep on writing to us via

COMPETITION CORNER

OMG! Are those the biggest sunglasses you have ever seen?!

Meg reckons she looks so cool in them, but I am not so sure, what do you guys think? Our chum Peter Rigg the Artist certainly thought they looked super doper.

Well he must have because he drew this fabulous cartoon for you all to colour in as part of the latest issue's competition.

And because the glasses are so enormous, you will need lots and lots of colouring pens to make sure the glasses look brilliant.

If you have glitter too, then why not throw some of that on and make the cartoon look out of this world.

It will certainly get you in the mood for the beach and some fun in the sea.

Its just for fun, but if you are fast enough and email it in via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk, then Meg may just send you some sun cream!

COMPETITION CORNER

We are showing our age now - but our favourite summer songs were 'Summer Loving' and 'Surfin' USA'.

You can guess just how old they are by the pictures of the album covers, but they were still the best we have ever heard and we still rock along to them.

Our pals Ruaridh and Flossie are more into Harry Styles and Miley Cyrus and their songs 'Sign of the Times' and 'Malibu' and infact we had to put our ear plugs in to stop them from blasting out our side drums with all that noise.

But the songs got us to thinking. We wondered what your favourite creations are and thought it would be nice if you could email the song titles in. Or if you are feeling really creative, why not record yourself singing a song and video it in?

We would love to see your creations, so why not get start now. Then email your efforts in and we might even send you a prize. Just send via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

MUG MIRTH

Have a sunny smirk today with these fabulous jokes which Meg came up with. If you can do better (and we know you can) why not send in via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk
