

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO folks!

The sun is out and we are headed for the beach. We just love splashing about and getting the old grille washed and brushed up.

There is nothing better than the sun on your back and a nice breeze as you sit admiring the view and watching everyone having fun and games.

Meg is a bit of a nag and is always going on at me about wearing sunscreen and making sure my most sensitive bits and bobs are kept covered up, so I don't get burnt.

It has been a strange old time recently and we all deserve some fun. I hope you have been out and about enjoying yourselves and anyone who wants to share what they have been up to, can send in their stories, via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and who knows you may win a wee prize.

MUG

COMPETITION

Blimey folks my old Meg is a right nag today. We decided to pop down to the beach for some r and r.

There I was, already to go with beach towel, swimming costume and plenty of sun cream of course to keep the old bonnet shiny.

But was Meg happy, of course not. She wanted the great big brolly bringing too so she could make sure she was covered up properly.

So we lugged the huge big brolly down to the beach and before we knew it, the daft old thing had blown right across the sand and into the rocks.

And now we can't reach it. So we need you to help us get there please. All you have to do is look at the lovely cartoon drawn by my new chum Michael Barnes aka The Clumsy Pickle and make your way across the maze.

Once you have cracked it, you could dig out your best colouring pens and give the cartoon a good old splash of colour and even add some glitter.

So have a go and if you want to send it to the garage, feel free, just send in and we might reward you. Please send via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

COMPETITION CORNER

Well I don't know about you, but I am always fascinated to know what lies at the bottom of the sea.

Everytime I take a dip, I wonder what is going to nip at my tootsies and brush against the headlights as I attempt to see what is below me.

Shells are a big favourite of mine and I love nothing more than heading down to the beach and combing to see what is lying on the sand.

I have dug out my favourite shell photos and I hope you like them. And to keep you in the loop shell wise, I have organised a fabulous wordsearch which will keep your interested in all things at the bottom of the sea, going.

All you have to do is look at it and circle the words listed and maybe make a prawn sandwich or two to nibble at whilst you are doing it.

Once you have worked it all out, why not send a copy to me to see Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk
