

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO folks!

Meg and I had a really spooky experience the other day when we popped down to watch some cricket.

Not only are we fast approaching the season of Halloween, but it is getting close to the end of the season. Being cool dudes, we love cricket and why not when we come from the same town as the best (probably) cricketer in the world (ok we are slightly biased!).

Yes, you guessed it, we are big, big fans of the Burnley Express James (Jimmy) Anderson and our spooky experience was seeing him in action down on the pitch.

It was quite surreal, especially since the ground was mostly full of Morris Minor fans and you know what a noisy lot you all are!

Anyway, Jimmy could not have been nicer or more talented and we had a fab day out and if you look below, we have a treat for all you Jimmy fans.

It would be lovely to hear from you too, so please drops us a line via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and who knows you may win a wee prize.

MUG

COMPETITION CORNER

Howzat! Yes folks if you have been reading from the top, you will know that today's Mug's Matters has a spooky cricket theme to it.

And it's all because we bumped into our all time favourite cricketer James (Jimmy) Anderson, which was a scary moment I can tell you. Why? Because Jimmy is the all time top dog in English cricket just now and he knows Meg and I, what could be better than that claim to fame.

Jimmy was down at our local pitch showing off his new book called Bowl, Sleep, Repeat, which has just been published by Octopus Books.

And what a fantastic book it really is! It is full of lots of fab facts and fascinating stories about Jimmy and his cricketing adventures.

We haven't found it yet, but Meg and I suspect there is a tribute to us in there somewhere too, it's just well hidden!

Our pal Peter Rigg the Artist is a big Jimmy fan too and he drew this great cartoon in honour of Jimmy and Halloween too.

It's a spooky colouring in cartoon and all you have to do is dish out your scariest colours and fill it in. And the best one will not only hang in our garage wall, but will also win one lucky Mug's fan a copy of Jimmy's ace book.

So please send in your clever and colourful cartoons via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk

BOWL. SLEEP. REPEAT.
