

MUGS MATTERS

HELLO folks!

Hankies at the ready folks. Meg and I will need a washing line full of them by the time we have said our farewells.

For it is a sad, sad day today as we wave goodbye to our chum and superstar artist Peter Rigg after more than 25 loyal years looking after Meg and I.

Peter has decided to hang up his pen and paper and head for garages new as he embarks on a new and exciting career.

Since Peter told us his plans, Meg has been inconsolable, weeping buckets so much that we have had to invest in hundreds of extra pairs of windscreen wipers.

You see we have grown old with Peter and like your favourite pair of slippers, we have become close chums and enjoyed not only his fabulous cartoons, but his company too.

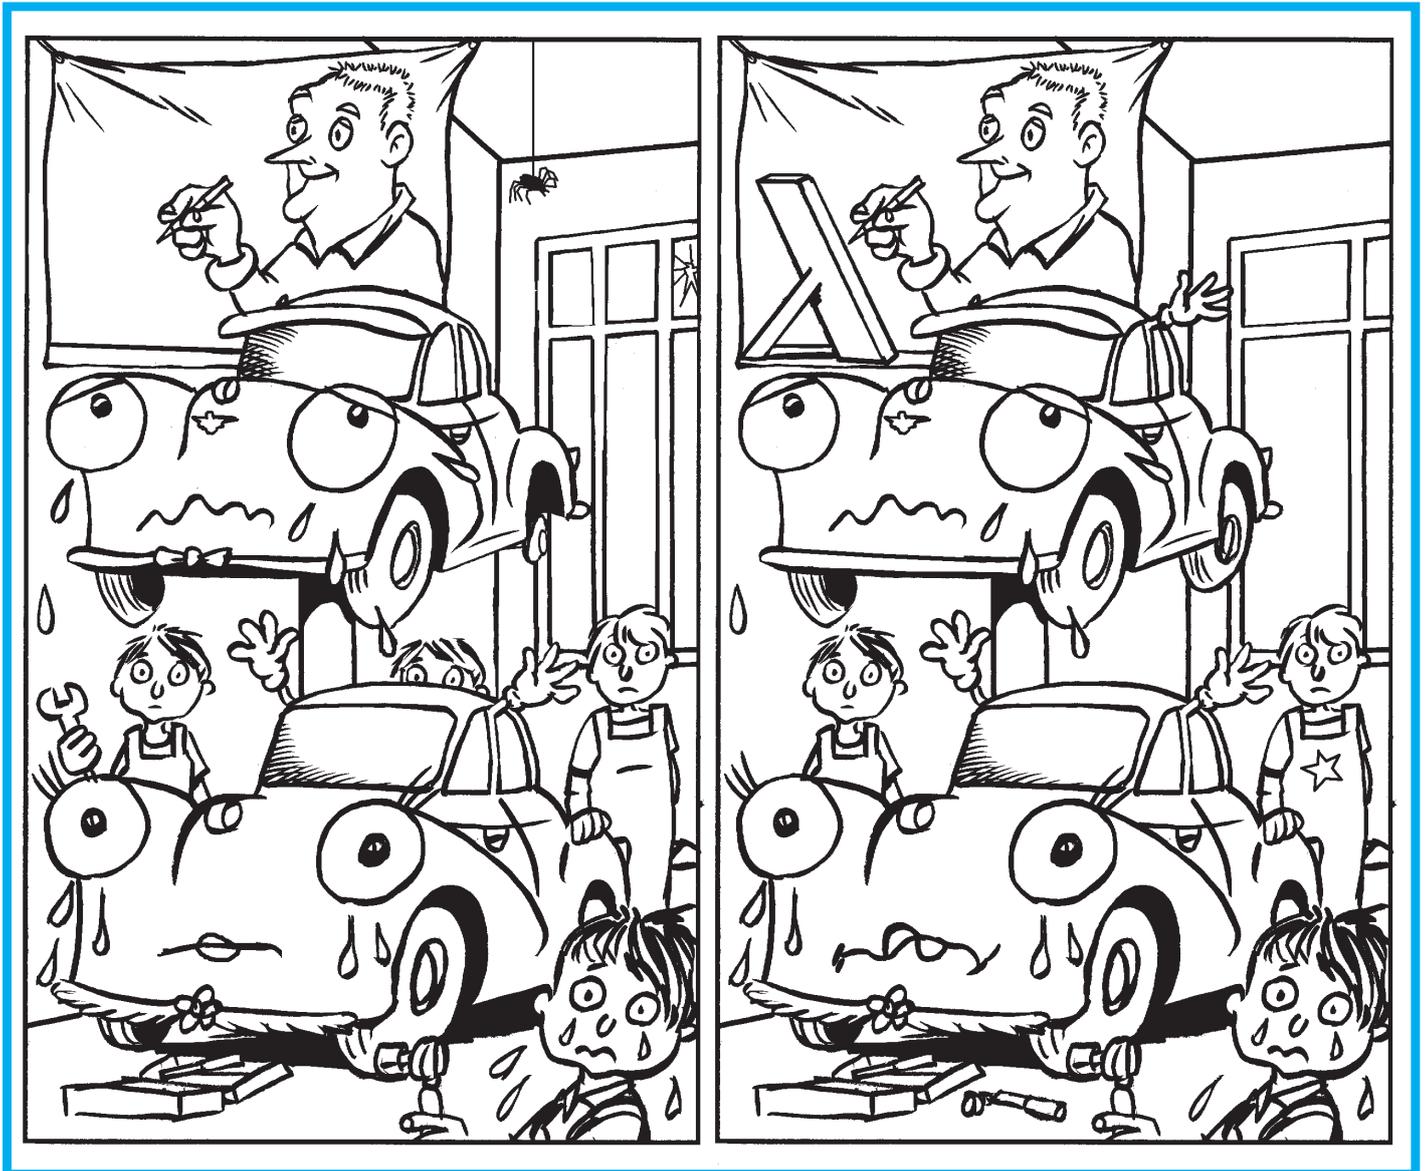

Meg loves him so much that she commissioned a portrait of Peter to hang on the garage wall and it was so nice, we decided to share it with you all and use it as part of today's competition.

It's a spot the difference competition and all you have to do is look at Peter's fine and last cartoon and well, spot the differences.

Once you have done that, you can cut it out and put it in your favourite scrapbook to remember him, colour it in or email it to Meg and I via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk and who knows you may win a wee prize.

And a final farewell and good luck to Peter!

MUG

COMPETITION CORNER

Now we are in the depths of winter and spending more time indoors enjoying watching the cold from the warmth of our sitting rooms - let's enjoy an ice breaking puzzle.

All you have to do is look at the snowman wordsearch and find the words which are slotted down the side.

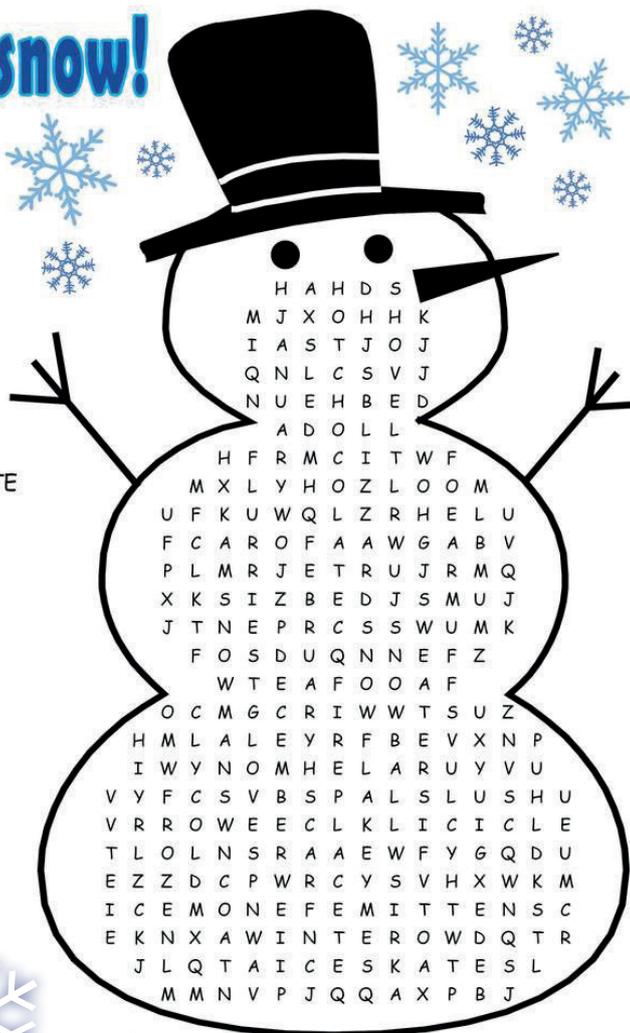

And when you have done that, you can look at the very impressive images which have been drawn in the snow and made out of the snow, from across the world.

They really are very fancy aren't they and it just shows how artistic people can be when they put their minds to it!

Anyway enjoy and remember it is all just for fun, but feel free to email us too say how you got on and who knows there may be a prize. Just send in via Rebecca.hay@mmoc.org.uk
